Collect of the Day Almighty God, on the holy mount you revealed to chosen witnesses your well-beloved Son, wonderfully transfigured: mercifully deliver us from the darkness of this world, and change us into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

First Reading

Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14

Daniel wrote, "As I watched, thrones were set in place, and an Ancient One took his throne, his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and its wheels were burning fire. A stream of fire issued and flowed out from his presence. A thousand thousands served him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him. The court sat in judgement, and the books were opened. As I watched in the night visions, I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven. And he came to the Ancient One and was presented before him. To him was given dominion and glory and kingship, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not pass away, and his kingship is one that shall never be destroyed."

SUNDAY SCHOOL VOLUNTEERS

St. Bartholomew's hopes to start Sunday School programming again in September. The format will be a simple "one room-all ages" format designed for younger children with opportunities for older children to assist. Gabrielle Wilson has volunteered to coordinate and supply weekly lessons and supplies. What is needed are 7 or 8 volunteers to work in teams of two, once per month. Vulnerable Sector Checks will be required, and can be facilitated through the parish office. If you would be interested in helping to slowly restart our Sunday School program, please contact Canon Catherine at catherine-ascah@ottawa.anglican.ca

ST BART'S BAZAAR - SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4

We are looking for people to make bags! As most shops no longer offer free bags it's practical to always carry your own for shopping or for folding umbrellas, gifts, shoes, water bottles and books. We're looking for cloth, knitted or canvas-style bags in a variety of sizes - messenger, shoulder, back pack and shopping bags with handles. If you have any questions please let me know! Thanks for considering this! Liz Heatherington 613-601-8692 text/mobile Elizmaryh@gmail.com

PRESERVES TABLE

Calling all creators of Marmalades, Jams, Jellies, Chutneys, Pickles, Salsas — we need your offerings in 250ml and 125ml volumes again this year for the Preserves Table! Thank you in advance for your generosity! For more info, contact Sally Doherty at sally.doherty@bell.net or 613-237-4474 (H) 613-402-6235 (C)

CRAFTS/KNITTING TABLE

If you enjoy making crafts and have some time this summer, please consider making some items for the Crafts/Knitting Table. People still look for simple knitted scarves, hats and items for babies and children. For more information about this table, please contact Table Convener, Diane Anido at 613-746-0298 or dcanido@yahoo.ca

Children are very welcome in the liturgies. There are seasonal activity packages at the back of the church to keep busy hands and minds occupied. Feel free to use them and to take them home at the end of the service.

Through September 3, our Sunday service will be at 9:30 a.m.

Second Reading

2 Peter 1:16-19

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honour and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased." We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain. So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

Hymn 169 Jesus, on the Mountain Peak

The Gospel

Luke 9:28-36

Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah" not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!" When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

The Communion

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Holy Communion at the Altar rail. After receiving the bread, you may either drink from the cup or cross your arms to indicate your wish to honour it. Taking only the bread is considered a full communion. Dipping the wafer in the wine is not allowed. Gluten-free wafers are available for those who require it. Please advise the priest. If the steps to the rail are a challenge, please advise the sidesperson and communion will be brought to you.
